

Environment Definition Documents for Mars Transportation, Next Generation Space Telescope, Space Solar Power

D6

Objective

Environment definition documents for several projects are under development. These documents describe atmospheric, plasma, ionizing radiation, meteoroid and orbital debris, and planetary surface environments for use in spacecraft design.

Why Needed

An environmental definition is essential for the design and operations planning for new spacecraft systems.

Point of Contact

Robert Suggs / ED44
Phone: 256-544-2704
Email: rob.suggs@msfc.nasa.gov

Sponsor

ASTP, NGST, SSP